AAA Guide to Departments

The American Anthropological Association publishes AnthroGuide an essential tool for students looking for graduate anthropology departments. We have a copy in the anthropology lab for students to reference. The AnthroGuide provides detailed information on:

- Over 10,000 anthropologists
- Almost 500 academic programs
- Over 70 Museums, Government Agencies and Research Firms

The AnthroGuide also includes:

- an Index of Institutions
- Departmental Listings
- a AAA membership directory
- statistical data
- a listing of PhD dissertations in anthropology

For each department, you can access:

- Name of Institution
- Department Name
- Degrees offered in Anthropology
- Faculty, Research Staff and Department Staff
- Anthropologists in Other Departments, Schools or Institutes
- Anthropology Club/President
- Degrees Granted in Anthropology (degree, female/male)
- Degree Requirements
- Academic Year System
- Special Programs & Field School Information
- Publications
